

ACROSTIC POEM By Erasmus+ project KA229 'Reawakening the Values depicted in European Society via literary work'

Too much work maybe you have today
Or you look for fun every second on a day
Dare to change it and draw your attention to your future
And put a step forward
You can change yourself and the entire world if you desire.

ARE YOU READY TO TAKE ACTION AND BROADEN YOUR MIND?

React to information and read books much with passion
Embrace the knowledge you get from all pages
Ally with the literature and spend time with devoted readers
Develop your insights of the world.
Enrich your wisdom and soul
Revolutionize yourself and the world.

Today is a good moment to start reading
Observe your bookshelf and choose an author.
Miguel de Cervantes could be the best option.
Of all his books The Quixote is the richest,
Romance, humor, values and adventure
Ready there for you to build up your future,
Obtain will you wisdom and pleasure
With any book, you can get leisure.

ARE YOU AWARE OF WHAT FUTURE WILL OFFER YOU WHEN YOU' RE A GROWN UP?

Loud but capable you will be as a leader
Engaging in both everything and anything
Allowing others to give their opinions
Don't look down on others by showing great dignity
Enrich your knowledge by appraising and reading
Rebel for the future for better and for further.
